"Lost in Sorrow: REVERIE," transcribed for piano by J. E. Ecker, just published by Ign. Fischer, Toledo, O., is a delightful piece for piano quite within the reach of young progressive pianists. The piece will be an enduring favorite, not merely because the melody is fresh and charming, but also from the fact that it combines, with melody, all the features of a bright and sparkling composition that will always be welcome and acceptable. Price, 40c. Ign. Fischer, publisher Toledo, O.

soon. Mr. Morse will remove his his wife from our town but wish

A special meeting of the Council was held last Wednesday evening at which but little business was transacted except to empower the Corporation Treasurer to go to Toledo to secure the bonds due the village in payment of gas pipe bill. A regular meeting will be held next Tuesday night at which time the Mayor will deliver his annual address, the new members will be sworn in and the standing committees appointed for the coming year.
The Mayor's report of fines collected together with his annual address will be published in full in the JOURNAL next week.

Wm. Schlect is now located in his new building, which makes a fine appearance. The front was designed by a Toledo architect, and the work of construction was under the direction of DeCater Hartising, who has the reputation of being one of the best mechanics in the state. The store room is over 90 feet in length and gives an excellent opportunity to display the goods handled by the enterprising proprietor. The store is well filled and business seems to be booming in this line. Mr. Schlect is to be congratulated on his enterprise in getting in his new building in such a short time after the fire.

W. M. Wilkinson who has been making a very successful tour of nearly all the States and territories as manager of Maude Granger, the celebrated emotional actress, visited what he is pleased to term "the most beautiful spot on earth"—Perryburg—the first of the week. Will, after many trials of his metal and ability to overcome adversity, has now become a very successful theatrical manager and is rapidly surmounting the ladder of fame, and none are more pleased over his success than the friends in Perry-burg, where he spent his boyhood days. May honor and success be his through life.

Halstead Thornton is fond of biscuit. Together with a number of other friends he attended a social gathering at the home of Philip Philburn a few evenings since. An elegant banquet was served to the guests, and when the biscuits were passed, Halt, helped himself to one and while conversing with a friend proceeded to take a bite, and found he was the victim of a practical joke.
The biscuit was filled with cotton and the trick was such a complete surprise to him that he was completely upset.
The party was a very pleasant occasion and Halt was declared a success at chewing cotton.

Miss Ethel Price spent Friday with friends in Toledo.
Mrs. F. R. Miller left Friday for her home in Denver, Col.
Orrin Goodell of Luckey, was in town on Tuesday last.
Dan. Schellinger is home from Luckey to remain a few days.
Mrs. Laura Frey, of Toledo spent Sunday here with her parents.
Rev. Boardman of Maumee, called on Perryburg friends this week.
Mrs. Judge Cook and Mrs. A. P.
Johnson spent Tuesday in Toledo.
Wallace Thompson and wife spent Sunday with I. P. Thompson and wife.
E. B. Morse and wife of Pemberville, visited D. M. Morse and wife of Perry-burg, this week.
Miss Anna Emch has returned from her four weeks visit with D. Sturges and friends and Mrs. W. V. Way, in Mansfield, and friends in Jactus, Stark County.

Misses Winnie Friesscher and Lulu Averill of Oberlin college, spent a few days of their vacation with friends in Perryburg, and have now returned to their studies.

Our informant was not correct in stating that in the case of Kingsbury vs. the Village of Perryburg the costs of suits were paid by J. C. Leydort.
The village pays the costs instead of Mr. Leydort, as stated last week.

Our old veteran friend Esquire Curtis has purchased the Mert Robison property on Miami street, near the Union elevator, East Toledo, and with his family will keep a boarding house.
We are sorry to see the old Esquire leave us.

They say that Tom Heinisch of Maumee, never crosses the river bridge after dark any more. One night when coming from Perryburg he was met by two "ruffians" who attempted to do him harm, but Tom was bringing home a bran new copper tea kettle which he had purchased to "make up" for getting left and having to come home on the late train, and he smashed away at one of his assailants who dodged the blow and the tea kettle was pounded into smithereens on the iron frame work of the bridge. Tom then flew the hill to Maumee at the rate of a mile a minute. It proved to be two of his most intimate friends who were playing a joke on him, because he had failed to keep his engagement with them and come over to visit Phoenix Lodge that evening.

NEW MUSIC HOUSE.
The Bowling Green Music Company Will Open a Branch House in Perryburg.

Howe Schooley, of Bowling Green, was in town the first of the week, making arrangements to open the branch store in the Minger block, on April 13, 1891. The Bowling Green Music Co. consists of Messrs. Ira Taber, S. L.
Long and H. Schooley, men of energy and business ability and backed with plenty of capital. They will keep on hand and for sale, the celebrated Haines Bros., D. H. Baldwin and C. A. Smith & Co. Pianos; the Story & Clark, Hamilton, Chicago Cottage, Crown and Packard Organs, and the well known White Sewing Machines.
They will also sell machine supplies, sheet music, music books, etc., and will be prepared at all times to supply their patrons with the latest and best of everything in their line of goods.

Charles Lawrence will be in charge of the Perryburg house as manager, and it is hoped that people will leave their orders here instead of going to Toledo for anything in this line.

A Visit to Northern Light.

A dozen members of Phoenix Lodge, F. & A. M., drove over the stream and called on the brethren of old Northern Light Lodge, on Tuesday evening last.
The work in the third degree was exemplified by W. H. Wyman, W. M. and his corps of officers, and was done in a manner highly pleasing to all present. This lodge, works what is known as the "old work," retaining as nearly as possible, the old land marks of many years ago.

After the degree had been conferred, the brethren were invited into the banquet room, where the stewards had prepared sumptuous refreshments for the benefit of visitors and members who did not fail to take advantage of the generosity of Northern Light.
After the supper and just before closing a few remarks were made by various members, after which the cigars were passed and the visitors soon left for home "to sleep, perchance to dream" of Steward Wilcox and his coffee.
These present from Perryburg were brothers Kingsbury, John and Frank Thornton, D. M. and E. B. Morse, Basil and E. R. Trombley, Newton, Eberly, Hollenbeck, Escott and Blue, all of whom seemed to enjoy themselves hugely, and are waiting for another invitation to call again.

Our dress goods department is very complete. We can please you in style and prices. Our prices are always right and every person is treated alike.
When you come to Toledo you will

DIED.

COWLES.—Henry E. Cowles departed this life, on April 6, 1891, aged 52 years, 3 months and 16 days, at his home near Walbridge.

He was a loving husband, a kind father and a good neighbor. His surviving companion, three sons and two daughters deeply feel their loss.

Mr. Cowles served his country as a soldier for four years in Co. B, 67th Ohio Regiment. Six of his company comrades served as pall bearers at his funeral, held at the residence and conducted by Rev. J. S. Fitterer, of Perryburg. His remains were deposited in the Walbridge cemetery vault.

Your Boys Clothes.

Spring time is here and your boys should be clothed in neat and dressy suits. In neat and well fitting clothing the boy will not only feel better but will be more comfortable and happy but will be more manly and have more self respect. You can't afford to neglect the boys clothing. Now a little good advice: Call at Mocketts, Toledo Clothier. You will there find Boys clothing in such a variety of styles prices and quality, that you cannot fail to be pleased. Mockett is the leader in line of Boys Suits. He buys in immense quantity for spot cash and has gained the well deserved reputation of giving the best value for the money.
For Mens and Boys Suits Mocketts is the place. 3a
